NR OF VISITING STUDENT PLACES (incoming) BY Department (if applicable) – [ex 1 place for Economics, 2 places for Architecture (TOTAL OF 3)] / PERIOD (semester or year)	Miami Law will accept two students from Unifi for one semester each year.
SCHOOLS/DEPARTMENTS/COURSES OPEN TO OUR VISITING STUDENTS	Miami Law offers its students a wide variety of courses in 18 areas of study: https://admissions.law.miami.edu/academics/jd/areas-of-study/
APPLICATION PROCEDURE (online or not, individual or group, etc.)	Students will first need to be nominated for an exchange semester at Miami Law by their home institution, which must be one of Miami Law's partner exchange universities.

	For exchange students whose native language is not English, the TOEFL or Academic IELTS English proficiency test is required. Once formally admitted to Miami Law’s International Exchange Programs, students will receive additional information on the required documents to obtain an F-1 student visa, if necessary. More information on the I-20 issuance and F-1 student visa is available from UM’s International Student and Scholar Services Office (ISSS). https://iss.miami.edu/index.html
REQUIRED LANGUAGE SKILLS (accepted tests and level)	TOEFL Minimum Score: 92 IELTS Minimum Score: 7.0 Waivers of the English-language proficiency test requirement may be granted in situations where the applicant can present other evidence of English language capability, such as a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited institution in the U.S. or other English-speaking countries or from an accredited institution where courses are taught entirely in English.
ENROLMENT/ATTENDANCE FEES TO BE PAID BY VISITING STUDENTS, IF ANY	Exchange students will pay tuition to their home institutions, if applicable. They will not pay Miami Law tuition or mandatory fees, except for the Health Insurance fee and Counseling Center fee. The Counseling Center fee is approximately $220/semester. Exchange students are required to pay this fee, and it is separate from the health insurance coverage. *Fees are subject to change annually

	More information is available at: https://studenthealth.studentaffairs.miami.edu/insurance-information/international-students/index.html *Health insurance coverage fees are subject to change annually
HOUSING (available options, prices, etc.)	J.D. programs at American universities are professional graduate-level programs. All graduate students attending UM, including the Law School, live off-campus. The Law School is located in Coral Gables, a residential area. Exchange students will be invited to participate in the Miami Law Housing and Living in Miami Online Session, prior to the semester start date. In this online session, exchange students can learn more about living in Miami and its different neighborhoods, valuable tips, do's & don'ts, etc. More information and housing resources can be found here: https://admissions.law.miami.edu/admitted/housing-living-in-miami/
VISA INFORMATION, if applicable	Once you have formally accepted your admission to Miami Law's International Exchange Programs, we will begin processing your I-20 Form so that you can obtain an F-1 student visa, if necessary. If we require additional details or documents to process your I-20 Form, we will contact you via email. Please keep in mind that receipt of an I-20 Form does not guarantee that a visa will be issued. The discretion to issue visas rests with the United States Department of State and U.S. consular offices abroad (https://www.state.gov/visas/). Students requiring a visa should monitor visa processing and appointment procedures for the U.S. consulate in your jurisdiction. Information on U.S. visas and visa appointment wait times can be found at U.S. Department of State Visa Information. More information on the I-20 issuance and F-1 student visa is available from UM's International Student and Scholar Services Office (ISSS) https://iss.miami.edu/index.html

	Students entering the U.S. on an F-1 student visa may arrive no more than 30 days prior to the official program start date listed on their I-20 Form. In planning for their arrival, students should consider travel restrictions such as government-mandated travel restrictions or quarantines, and/or airline route cancellations. As a reminder, UM is not liable for any related expenses students incur during travel planning. As such, we recommend that, when possible, students avoid financial commitments (i.e., booking travel) until closer to the start of the semester and after they have obtained any necessary travel visa.
